'Love your Local School' Day Speakers

Breathe

Rachel Warwick is the National Project Director for Breathe. Breathe was commissioned by dare2engage for use in spiritual development with 16-19 year olds. It was written, designed and created by Jenny Baker and Clare Birch. Rachel is seeking to extend the use of Breathe within educational settings. Dare2engage is a network of teachers and practitioners in secondary and 16-19 education who share a common aim to develop new and innovative resources for RE and spiritual development. The project is sponsored by the Jerusalem Trust, which is part of the Sainsbury Family Trusts.

REinspired

REinspired has been supporting primary and secondary schools in East Reading for over a decade. It has developed an approach to effectively engage pupils in RE and create partnerships with schools and churches which is to be the subject of a book to be published in 2011.

Paul Haynes is REinspired's project director.

Spinnaker Trust

Spinnaker Trust is committed to providing Collective Worship and Religious Education for primary schools. For over 20 years Spinnaker has been creating opportunities for school children to engage with Christianity. Our mission is to support teachers, by taking assemblies and RE lessons, providing high quality learning experiences in primary schools. Our workers are in contact with children in over 75 primary schools every two weeks, mainly in south London, but also in parts of Kent and Sussex. Martin Sweet is the Development Director of Spinnaker Trust.

GOvner Ministries

After many years' experience in evangelism and schools work, including working for CARE for Education and Viz-a-Viz Ministries, Mike Simmonds established GOvner Ministries in 2009. He works as an Evangelism and Education Consultant (www.goministries.org.uk) providing support for Christians who are school governors (www.transforminggoverning.org.uk)

Scripture Union

Wayne Dixon is a Field Development Worker with Scripture Union. He has been involved with the development of Christmas and Easter presentations in church for local schools for the past 15 years. Hear more about these presentations at www.baptist.org.uk/resources/crossing-places/wayne2.html

Schoolswork.co.uk

Amy Stock is the Director of schoolswork.co.uk (launched in November 2007) providing inspiration and training for Christians in schools.
